

ZEISS Sports Optics

Limited Lifetime Transferable Warranty (USA and Canada) (“Limited Warranty”)

(North America - USA and Canada)

This warranty gives you specific legal rights, and you may also have other rights which vary from State to State. This warranty only covers products purchased within the USA or Canada from Authorized ZEISS Sports Optics Dealers.

Limited Lifetime Transferable Warranty

ZEISS Sports Optics Optical Systems are warranted against defects in workmanship and materials for the life of the Product, with the exception of the Limited Warranty Conditions listed below. The Optical System means (a) all the components between and inclusive of the optic’s objective and ocular lens, and (b) any functional and mechanical operating system associated with the optical performance of the Optical System.

If a defect covered by this Warranty is found, ZEISS will, at its sole discretion, repair or replace the Product with a new or reconditioned ZEISS product of comparable specifications. Although product registration and proof-of-purchase are not required to redeem the limited lifetime warranty, some programs, including the 5 year No-Fault Policy, may require them for eligibility. In the absence of proof of purchase, the date of manufacture will determine the beginning of the warranty period.
